Correction

In last week's Times-Virginian, a story on the business page incorrectly identified O.T. Jamerson as O.S. Jamerson.

Mr. Jamerson is celebrating 50 years as a supplier of wild wood to Continental Forest Industries' Hopewell mill.

We regret the error.

Correction

In the article, Pamplin native named Texas police chief, appearing in the Times-Virginian, August 26, Robert Lee Terry shold have read Roger Lee Terry.

We regret the error.

Scout meeting set

The Parent Committee of Cub Scout Pack #546 will hold an organizational meeting on Thursday, September 3 at 7:00 in the Memorial United Methodist Church.

Any parents who are interested in the cub scout program in Appomattox are encouraged to attend. Scouting cannot continue unless more leaders and volunteers are willing to participate and get involved in providing this worthwhile program for our young boys.

For more information call Newton Tolley, Cubmaster, 352-8441; or Sarah Summers, Committee Chairman, 933-4446.

Leaf prices up

Flue-Cured Tobacco Sales - The fifth week of Old and Middle Belt flue-cured tobacco auctions ended with steady to lower grade prices and better quality of offerings, reports the Federal-State Market News Service. Volume was heavy and a larger percentage of gross sales went under loan. Producers' sales opportunity in this belt next week (August 24-27) is 28,197,000 pounds (includes four markets or 3,556,000 pounds in Marketing Area C).

Gross sales by states follows:

States	Week Ending August 26, 1981 Pounds	Average	Season Through August 26, 1981 Pounds	Average
Virginia	9,377,650	$155.52	36,113,046	$147.35
North Carolina	19,967,921	154.22	67,267,271	151.10
TOTAL	29,335,571	$154.59	93,380,317	$150.86

The general average of $153.59 per hundred topped the previous week's return by $4.94. Last year, season sales totaled 81,980,493 pounds for $131.57 per hundred. Resales this week totaled 2,420,418 pounds, increasing the season figure to 6,330,108 pounds.

Prices losses of mainly $1 to $5 per hundred were recorded for all grades of primings, most nondescript and several grades of ripe lugs. Although most heavy volume grades were down from last week, there were numerous gain of $1 to $5 among unripe or immature leaf, cutters, and lugs. Top average remained $190 per hundred for good quality cutters.

Sales of upper stalk tobacco increased sharply to account for 28 percent of total volume. Lugs rose to 41 percent, while primings and nondescript dropped to 21 and 10 percent, respectively. About 57 percent of offerings graded fair quality, 21 percent low, and 12 percent good. Tobacco described as unripe or immature comprised almost one-third of sales.

Growers placed 8.4 percent of gross sales under loan. For the season, the Flue-cured Stabilization Corporation holds 5.2 percent compared to 5.9 percent last year for 18 sales days.

Farm Storage Facility Loan Program - ASCS provides loans to farmers to help them buy, build or remodel on-farm storage facilities and to obtain drying and handling equipment.

The cash down payment is 25 percent and interest rate is 14½ percent. Loans can be made for a 5-year period.

Storage needs are based on one year's production, and all existing storage space will be considered in determining storage capacity.

For additional details on the program, contact the ASCS office.

Happiness is 4-H

By FRANK SWEET

The Five County Fair time is nearly upon us. 4-H members and parents are encouraged to exhibit as many items as possible in the Fair. A large number of exhibits makes for a successful Fair each year. The schedule for exhibits is as follows: Monday, September 14 - all animals, vegetables, crops, canned goods, clothing items, crafts, etc.; Wednesday, September 16 - Youth baked goods and youth flower exhibits; Thursday, September 17 - adult baked goods and adult flower exhibits. 4-H members may bring exhibits to their respective schools and they will be picked up and taken to the Fair. 4-H'ers need to put their names on their exhibit items and the type of exhibit. Five County Fair catalogs are available in each of the school libraries. Each 4-H member should try to exhibit at least one item in the Fair.

* * *

Senior 4-H'ers have until September 15 to apply for the position of 4-H Ambassador for Appomattox County. 4-H Ambassadors will be asked to represent 4-H at various special meetings and functions during the year. Ambassador applications are available from the Extension Office.

* * *

4-H'ers in the 6th and 7th grade may sign up for a Hunter Safety Course which will be taught at the end of September. 4-H'ers taking the six hour course will become certified under the Safe Hunter Program sponsored by the NRA and the Virginia Game Commission. Call the Extension Office at 352-8244 if you would like to sign up. Parents are welcome to participate also.

* * *

All of last year's 4-H projects will be due in the Extension Office by October 16. Projects will be judged, ribbons awarded and returned to the 4-H members in November.

* * *

Three Appomattox 4-H'ers will participate in National 4-H Congress in Chicago during late November. Terri Nash, Laura Walton and Laurie Cowan will be among 43 4-H'ers from Virginia who will travel to the Conrad Hilton Hotel in Chicago for the National Congress.

Correction made to Boy Scout story

In the article on Scouting appearing in the Times-Virginian, August 26 the name of Bentley Nash was ommitted in the list of awards earned by Appomattox Scouts at summer camp. Nash, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Nash received the following awards: mile swim, swimming, and canoeing.

We regret the omission.
